

QUESTIONS TO MY FATHER

By Charles Anzalone

©2009

*God speaks to many people
But
None, no one listens;
God speaks to many hearts ---
Again ---
Few listen.
God speaks to many minds ---
Yet ---
Few comprehend.
God speaks in many tongues,
A few may understand;
However . . .
Life has its own travails, its own trials of tears,
If God is with us always and ever,
And God speaks to all who endeavor,
Why no speak to me?*

*It seems the delusional and psychotics
Have the best seats in the house,
For,
They are blessed with visions and voices
Whom no others hear or see
Or are able to interact.*

*So speak to me, God,
Help me apprehend
Such sage ideas from the very wise,
For I feel so misunderstood.*

