Your birthday reminds us
How special you are.
Like a bright golden sunset
The first evening star.

You're the Rock of Gibraltar
As deep as the forest.
Your friends often range from
The richest to poorest.

Your heart is as warm
As a mid-summer breeze,
And you rush through life slowly
With grace and with ease.

Just keep on doing
The things that you do,
And we'll keep right on
Being bullish on you.
